

ABSTRACT

[0129] A therapeutic bioconjugate is composed of a hydrophilic polymer covalently bound to one or more peptides capable of binding specifically to a ligand expressed on a cell surface and thereby forming a biofilm to prevent attachment of cells with the binding partner of the ligand.